NEW SURVEY ON DC'S FIRE PREPAREDNESS COULD LOWER RATES

INSURANCE REDUCTIONS?

Underwriters Agree To Evaluate Improvements Next Spring Here

Daly City's persistent effort for a new survey on fire insurance rates finally has won the consent of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Carl W. Weers, assistant chief engineer in the national board's San Francisco office, told City Manager Edward Frank here last week that the underwriters will re-survey Daly City's fire preparedness the first week of March next year.

Frank, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and City Engineer Bill Chapman have met with the underwriters on numerous occasions to encourage a new survey that would — they feel — justify a reduction in local insurance rates.

Daly City's rates shot up and protests were rampant in December of 1958 when the underwriters, after a week-long survey here, upped Daly City's insurance category from Class 4 to 6. The city council and Chamber of Commerce complained vigorously that many already planned fire system and water department improvements were not taken into account by the outside researchers.

The city manager and Kennedy believe the new survey will greatly reduce Daly City's "deficiency" points and merit a rate reduction from Class 6 to 4—and possibly even Class 3.

Among the improvements made since the 1958 survey are a new fire station in southern Westlake, seven more firemen, two new fire pumper trucks, and an auxiliary vehicle, establishment of a Fire Prevention Bureau within the department, better police-fire communications, and numerous equipment additions.

Frank said he and Kennedy the past several months have urged the underwriters to resurvey Daly City at their earliest opportunity and "we hope the report on their new findings will be prepared promptly so lower rates can be realized as soon as possible."

Southern Hills

East-side Tract Map Approved

Final map of Standard Builders' first "Southern Hills" subdivision — covering 157 lots — was approved by the Daly City Planning Commision last week.

The builder has 100 acres in the easterly sector of Daly City for 700 new homes. Construction will begin early next year. Standard already has completed several homes on the San Francisco side of the county line.

The planners were notified by architect John C. Worsley that the Brisbane School District has made arrangements with Standard for an elementary school site to serve Southern Hills. The school, according to City Engineer Bill Chapman, will be located near the end of Bellevue avenue and east of the present drive-in theater.

Fire protection for the 100-acre development will be headquartered at the to-be-renovated volunteer fire station, corner of Peoria and Roosevelt streets.

Attendance at the planners' meeting was heavy last week, mainly residents of Westlake protesting Mrs. Charles W. Jacobs' application for a use permit to erect a sun deck on the slope in the rear of her property at 236 Belhaven avenue. The commission held over hearing on this application pending a report from Westlake Improvement Association on its decision.

Motel owners George and Hugh Smith Jr. were held off by the planners in their request for rezoning nine lots in the Edgewood Terrace section near the originally proposed Mary's Help Hospital site from R-1 (homes) to R-3 (apartments). The commission feels the requested zoning would leave "islands" between the R-3 lots, and suggested Smith ask these Compromise?

Lawn Fuss Simmers Somewhat

Ivy-planter Jack Klein, his attractive wife and their attorney held the first but perhaps not their last "summit" meeting with Westlake Improvement Association directors Monday night as the controversy over the transplanted front lawn simmered down a bit.

Klein didn't retreat from his thinking that the WSIA has no business ordering him around. But the directors, hoping to avoid additional unfavorable publicity, suggest a compromise.

This would be for Klein to appear before the WSIA's five-member architectural committee—probably after the first of the year—and see if he can convince them that he was justified in replacing his fungus-ruined lawn with the carefully planned and costly ivy arrangement.

Director McRobert Stewart, told the newspaper the board informed Klein they would put their conciliatory offer—inviting him to talk the thing out with the architectural committee—in writing.

Klein, a union president, indicated he would refer such a missile to his attorney, Thomas Thorner, of the noted San Francisco firm of Belli, Asher and Gerry. In short, Klein would consider such a meeting, but he isn't conceding ground no matter what the end result of the proposed confab.

The WSIA architectural committee consists of Chairman William Upp, K. C. Martin, Lewis McDermott Jr., Gordon Chambers and William Cardiel.

Monday evening's meeting of the WSIA had been announced as a closed session of the board, but eager SF news reporters,

New Position?

CHIEF KENNEDY ASKS BOARD TO LIST ASSISTANT

Veteran Daly City Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy at the last Personnel Board meeting asked the unit to resubmit a duty statement to the council on the job of assistant fire chief.

Kennedy earlier this year requested the council to establish the new position and the personnel board supported the chief. The council, however, rejected their proposals.

Kennedy now wants the council to approve the duty statement in the hope an assistant chief can be authorized in the near future.

The city's personnel audit by the state last year did not include a recommendation for the establishment of an assistant fire chief's position. Kennedy and the city personnel board, however, believe the new position would be commensurate with the police department's similar position of assistant

City's Civil Defense Improvements To Cost $16,000 During 1961

Daly City officials, anxious like other Peninsula cities to have the county coordinate an effective civil defense program, intend to finalize plans for making the local system maximumly effective and smoothly operational next year.

Phil Brown, assistant city manager and DC's civil defense coordinator, discussed the city's plans for a $16,000 new civil defense communications system last week in conference with Mayor Frank Pacelli and City Manager Edward Frank.

The council has $8000 in its present budget set aside for the new communications equipment and expects matching federal funds by next summer. A new civil defense shack will be erected on the sanitation district grounds in Westlake to centralize emergency operations.

The new equipment will make possible a central dispatching system — all city departments tuned in on a new radio frequency—which will accelerate operations during nature or enemy-caused crises.

"This new dispatching system —apart from being a key asset for civil defense—will improve municipal operations all-year around." Brown explained. "Fire, police, public works, administrative, and civil defense vehicles all will be in constant contact on this radio hookup."

The civil defense shack itself, geared to function under the most extreme conditions, will be equipped with a new transmitter and antennae of considerable scope.

Brown told the mayor and manager he has invited William W. Ward, regional state civil defense coordinator who lives in Walnut creek, here to discuss Daly City's civil defense structure.

All residents of Daly City were mailed civil defense "procedure" booklets last year, Brown reminded. Provisions in these still apply.

Brown said next year's $16,000 project will bring Daly City up-to-date on civil defense preparedness and his office would make recommendation for reviving the city's Disaster Council a—body of many citizens who have specific leadership assignments during emergencies.

"The Disaster Council met only twice last fiscal year and only once, I believe, the year previously," Brown noted.

Roy W. Foster, east-side resident and former planning commissioner, has been the most active of the city's civil defense

BUILDING PACE WAS SLOW AGAIN DURING NOVEMBER

Fifty-four building permits were issued by Daly City's Public Works Department in November for new construction valued at $467,666.

Only seven new homes were begun last month—five on Florence street by Lagomarsino Company, one on Bellevue avenue, and another on Westlake avenue—all on the east side of town. Their combined valuation was listed at $93,200.

Asst. City Building Inspector Maurice Clark said two commercial building permits comprised the bulk of the November valuation. One was issued to Henry Doelger Inc. for the new office building to be erected in Westlake at the corner of Park Plaza drive and Southgate avenue, and the second was to Doelger for the second half of his new Skyline Shopping Plaza, near the corner of Southgate and Westmoor avenue. The Skyline center will open next spring.

There were 36 permits for alterations to homes last month. This valuation totaled $50,316. Two permits for home garages were valued at $4000. There

Daly City's 'Old Faithful' Christmas Tree Is Artificial...But Really Nice!

Daly City's simulated Christmas Tree, a scarred survivor of stonings and other forms of vandalism, is up again for the holiday season.

If trees had feelings, this one would have a persecution complex. Over the past four years—it was first erected in 1956—the tree has "lost" a total of over 1000 light bulbs. That is to say, they were smashed or stolen. And rock-wielding kleptomaniac juveniles have been the usual culprits.

Here's the record so far: In 1956, 587 bulbs destroyed and the tree's rigging pulled to the ground; 1957, over 200 bulbs; 1958, approximately 150; 1959, 75. The toll thus far this year is 9, after only one day's exposure. The 1960 tree was installed last Tuesday.

While not an evergreen, rather an assortment of colored lights strung on cables surrounding a pole, the "tree" is an unmistakable symbol of Christmas. It stands 100 feet high and can be seen from as far away as the Bay Bridge.

In 1959 its light-wires were replaced by steel cables, fastened above ground level, as protection against vandals.

The idea of a city Christmas tree was conceived after a string of lights hung from lamps along Mission street came crashing to the ground during a severe storm in 1954. 75 percent of the light bulbs were destroyed.

Notwithstanding blizzards, landslides and itchy-fingered urchins, the tree should remain a Daly City landmark for many years to come.

Council To Appoint New Sr. Engineer Next Tuesday Night

Appointment of a new senior civil engineer for the public works department will be one of the agenda items at the Daly City Council meeting Tuesday night, December 27, starting at 8 o'clock.

This week's council study session has been called off. The council will preview their agenda Tuesday at 7 p.m., according to City Manager Edward Frank.

All council meetings are open to the public and are held each month on the second and fourth Monday nights at 75 Wellington avenue, second floor. Next Monday is a holiday, thus the council will meet the following evening.

Man 'Suffers' Face-Blackening

Officer Charles Munday of the Daly City police rushed to 236 Los Olivos avenue Sunday afternoon upon receiving a report from the Plaza phone operator of an explosion at that address.

Munday, not knowing quite what to expect, was met at the door by Joseph P. Hurtado who explained that his hot water heater had blown up. Gas had blown back into his face when he'd tried to light it.

Daly City firemen were called to the scene and turned off the gas line.

Man Kills Self Following Xmas Party Dispute

George J. Beutler of 361 First avenue, died at Community Hospital seven hours after inflicting the wound with a 32-caliber revolver.

According to his wife, Ellen, and brother Ralph, the three had attended a Christmas party given by Beutler's employer, Harry Minton, in Burlingame. Beutler had been drinking heavily and soon became involved in a heated argument with one of his fellow employees. When the group left the party just before 10 p.m., Beutler was still in an excited state, and on the ensuing drive home reportedly made several remarks about "getting even."

Upon arriving home, he went directly to a rear bedroom and locked himself in. After hearing the gun-shot Ralph Beutler kicked in the other property owners to also request R-3 zoning.

In other actions, the commission:

1. Approved variance to reduce required setback from 15 to zero feet at city's proposed new $100,000 pump house at the corporation yard, corner of Citrus and Niantic. Chapman has designed the new structure and bids are to be advertised next summer. This capital outlay project will be financed with funds appropriated this fiscal year and next.

2. Approved use permit filed by San Francisco Motors, 5900 Mission street, for new and used car sales and storage at 6057 Mission street.

3. Approved use permit application of Mobil Oil Company, Oakland, to construct a gasoline station at the southeast corner of St. Francis boulevard and Southgate avenue, St. Francis Heights. Also granted use permit for 12-foot plastic sign and pole at this station.

4. Approved use permit for installation of 36-foot sign at Mayfair Market, 6967 Mission street.

5. Approved application for use permit filed by William St. Clair, San Francisco, to construct a four-unit apartment building on Mission street between Evergreen and Crocker avenues. The city's land-use plan designates this area for preferred commercial usage, but the planners felt R-3 (apartments) zoning was allowable.

6. Approved petition filed by Gateway Chevrolet, 7400 Mission, for rezoning two lots on Hill street near Southern Pacific tracks from R-3 (apartments) to C-2 for a fenced automobile storage lot. This is the site of the old box factory which recently burned down.

7. Held over use permit and variance applications filed by Systematic Savings and Loan Association, 7070 Mission, for erection of an illuminated sign, proposed height 42 feet, because applicant was not represented at the meeting.

8. Took under study the San Mateo County Planning Commission's recently adopted ordinance on regulation of grading and excavation operations.

Meeting of San Mateo County's mayors two weeks ago brought a request to the county board of supervisors for establishment of a county-coordinated civil defense program. The individual cities, many of them handicapped by general public apathy on civil defense, are assessing their preparedness and are planning heavier budget expenditures on civil defense.

Except for the party dispute, his wife and brother could give no reason for the action. Ellen Beutler told Daly City police her husband had never before attempted or threatened to commit suicide.

By comparison, October construction here found 42 permits issued on projects valued at $450,726.

TOPIC of the most publicized controversy in Westlake's ten-year history is replanted front lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klein, 97 Lake Forest drive at the corner of Westlawn avenue. Famed San Francisco attorney Mel Belli is representing the Kleins in their dispute with the Westlake Improvement Association. THE RECORD photo

HOUSEWIFE Sally Klein, holding her pet Pomeranian "Daisy," and flanked by neighbor children Suzanne Drakulich and Diane Arnke, says her husband will not conform to Westlake Improvement Association's edict on restoring the Klein's front yard to its original condition—lawn. The Kleins uprooted the lawn because their attempts to rid it of fungus failed. They claim the ivy they planted in place of the lawn is not detrimental to their property value and to their neighbors. chief—a post that is presently unoccupied.

Kennedy and Police Chief Roland Petrocchi asked the personnel board at the meeting to consider extending their departments' probationary period for new and regular employees from six months to a year.

The police department currently has a one-year probationary period for new officers, but Petrocchi feels police employees of all ranks should have a one year probationary period as they advance in the ranks.

Both Kennedy and Petrocchi believe the six-months probationary term isn't long enough to train employees. Petrocchi feels that certain police officers, sergeants and above, need at least a year "to learn the ropes" of their responsibilities as supervisors.

In other business, the personnel board (acting chairman John Drye, Joseph Schultz, Bob Young and Al Polonsky):

1. Promulgated eligibility lists for garage mechanic and police officer. Single openings in both departments will be filled within the next month. First three finishers for the $485-$562 salary range mechanic's job were Alfred Rodgers, Haruo Yoshimura and Thomas Richner. There were five candidates. For police patrolman, nine candidates advanced to the final selection. In order of scores, they are Gordon Sims, Gino Manicci, Joseph Grieco, Neil Hammermann, Nicholas Baham Jr., Wesley Smith, Peter Murphy, Alan Mowry and Robert Ingbritson. Petrocchi scheduled final interviews last week. The police vacancy was created by the resignation of Officer Harold Tunnell who is now a county sheriff's deputy.

2. Read letters of commendation written by residents praising Police Officers Les Bastedo, James Bergstrom, Richard Sims and Special Officer Ricci. These letters were ordered filed in the personnel records of each patrolman.

still stretching to get the most out of an infrequent neighborhood uproar, arrived in force with pencils sharpened and cameras ready.

Chairman Emory Schoolcraft of the WSIA wasn't about to exclude anyone from the session.

"We have nothing to hide," he said. "All it takes is a little tolerance and common sense to resolve our mutual problems."

Klein's argument is that his deed makes no mention of Westlake lawn requirements. The Association maintains that all homeowners are obliged to conform to the implied restrictions in the deeds and definition of these in the unit's by-laws.

An eight-year resident of Westlake in his attractive residence at 97 Lake Forest drive, Klein claims he hadn't seen a copy of the by-laws until two weeks ago.

More and More Blue Birds

Charters have recently been issued to two new Blue Bird groups in the area. The Budding Blue Birds consist of second graders from Abraham Lincoln School. This group includes the following members: Caye Abbey, Susan Carson, Laura Clark, Judith Eliachar, Elena Grijalva, Julia Heick, Christ Jackson, Claudia Martin, Nancy Plyer, Jane Ruse and Jean Zahardi. Mrs. Albert Zanardi, 464 Skyline Drive, is the leader of this group of juniors in the Camp Fire Girls program. Mrs. Birdene Heick, Mrs. Mearl Carson and Mrs. Beverly Jackson are the group's sponsors.

From Garden Village School, the Sunshine Blue Birds have organized. Lorinda Carrasco, Janet Edwards, Jackie Hale, Jean Marie O'Dea, Elizabeth Petros, Barbara Regan, Linda Tolomei and Debbie Vocke are the new members. Adults working with the girls include: Mrs. Warren Vocke, Leader; Mrs. H. W. Edwards, assistant leader; and Mr. Andrew J. Petros, sponsor.

OBITUARY

Marie G. Greco

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at W. C. Lasswell and Company for Marie Grace Greco, 68, who died December 15 in San Francisco. A resident of Daly City for the past 36 years, she lived at 75 Woodrow street. She was a native of Italy and had lived in California 41 years.

Mrs. Greco is survived by her husband, Ralph Greco; three children, Mrs. Dina Vlahos, Mrs. Marie Bailey, and Victor Marotta; her sister, Mrs. Christina Bonomi; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

KIDNAPERS FREE VICTIM, KEEP CAR

Two young hoodlums, wielding 6-inch switchblades, abducted an American Automobile Association employee Monday night, drove him from San Mateo to Daly City, then released him unharmed.

The victim, Carlos F. Heyman, 28, of 1579 Lago street, San Mateo, told police that as he approached his parked car on Howe street, the two suspects emerged, shoved knives against his back and forced him into his car. While one held Heyman at knife-point, the other drove.

When they reached the intersection of Alemany boulevard and Junipero Serra avenue, the men released Heyman, handed him his briefcase and raincoat and drove off. The victim, less one 1961 Volvo, but otherwise intact, called Daly City police from Westlake. He described one of his abductors as a "Mexican type" and both about 19 years of age.

Police throughout the San Francisco and Peninsula area have been alerted to look out for the stolen vehicle.

Sewer Board Checks Copies Of Callan Map

The district's engineer, C. L. White, submitted his report on plans for new pumping stations to move sewage in Westlake Unit 11 up the hill and towards the Westlake plant. The Unit 11 pumping stations are one phase of the Daly City-Pacifica boundary swap, involving Doelger land, currently under study by both city councils.

J. J. Poket, district sanitation inspector since October of 1954, submitted his resignation. Poket at an earlier meeting requested permission to work only one-half a day when his duties are rather limited and to work full-time when necessary.

The three directors (Bob St. Clair, Edward McDonald and Joseph Verducci) also passed a resolution changing sanitation board meetings from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. the first and third Mondays of each month. The meetings are open to the public and are held at the sanitation plant, just below Central Fire Station off Lake Merced boulevard in Westlake.

Supervisor-elect James Fitzgerald is expected to replace fellow supervisor McDonald on the sanitation board next month. Fitzgerald's four-year term as First District supervisor begins January 1.

Verducci joined the sanitation board two months ago. St. Clair has been on the board almost 18 months.

PLEASE THINK ABOUT 'THOSE WHO HAVE NOT'

Before settling down to worry about what kind of Christmas gift we can find for the "man (or woman) who has everything," perhaps we should pause briefly to give sober thought to the proper gift for men and women who have almost nothing.

There are many things these people need — need desperately. But we do not know the families, the children, the homeless and lonely individuals with whom we'd like to share our own Christmas happiness. We are in no position to set up a list of appropriate gifts for them.

But, The Salvation Army is in just such a position. The Army knows these people well, knows what they need and want, knows exactly what will create for them a truly happy Christmas. When you give to The Salvation Army Christmas Appeal, you can be sure that you are giving to those less fortunate the most effective gifts, the proper gifts, chosen with wisdom and care against a background of knowledge and love.

We suggest that you share your own happy Christmas in the best possible manner by sending a generous contribution today to The Salvation Army Christmas Appeal.

Jail Termer Suspect In House Burglary

Mary Natoli of 630 Niantic avenue has reported the recent theft of $1360 in jewelry and other personal property from her home.

Her mother, Josephine Natoli, who lives at the same address, had been working in the garden the afternoon of December 15 and upon re-entering the house at 3 p.m., found a number of drawers had been rifled. Daly City police called to the scene determined that someone had come into the house through an open back door. While Mrs. Natoli was discussing with Police Officer Charles Munday the possibility of theft, her daughter, Mary, returned home, and after going through her belongings, confirmed that she had been burglarized.

Three days later she submitted an estimate, amounting to the $1360 in stolen property.

Mary, a divorcee, suggested the name of a former and still persistent suitor as the possible suspect. Police, however, are trying to track down another individual who was arrested and jailed for burglarizing the Natoli home last February.

Short-Changers Picked Up In Shopping Center

A pair of alleged short-change artists were apprehended recently in the Westlake Shopping Center, thanks to some effective sleuthing on the part of a drug store clerk and customer.

According to a police report, Robert E. Whitley, 35, and his wife Kay, of San Pablo, walked into the Crown Drug Store at 355 South Mayfair, Westlake, the afternoon of December 10, and bought an item of merchandise costing under $1. Whitley handed the clerk, Jeffery Lashkoff, a $20 bill. Lashkoff returned the change: one $10 bill, one $5, four $1 bills and silver. As Whitley walked away he replaced the $10 bill with a $1 bill he had hidden in the palm of his hand, and pocketed the larger bill. He then turned to Lashkoff, showed him the $1 bill, and said, "I think there's been some mistake." Lashkoff politely denied this and the Whitleys without further protest left the shop.

An unidentified customer then stepped up and advised Lashkoff that she had witnessed the same couple "at work" in several other stores. Lashkoff told Irv Kohn, manager of Crown Drugs, who in turn notified Daly City Police. Meanwhile, Lashkoff and his customer tailed the suspects to the Westlake Food Center. The police were then advised as to the Whitleys whereabouts and arrived shortly to apprehend the couple at the market.

At the police station, the Whitleys admitted attempting to short-change a number of Westlake merchants, with success in at least one case. Walgreen Drugs, 395 South Mayfair, a victim, confirmed this.

The suspects explained they had been driven to the Daly City-Westlake area by a friend, one Oscar T. Drews, 40, also of San Pablo. Police found Drews waiting in his pick-up truck at the Shopping Center. When questioned about the petty thefts, he said he thought the Whitley's "had just gone shopping." However, police believe he may be involved.

Whitley, who has a record in Sacramento for petty theft, was released on $262 cash bail.

'Stenos' At Westmoor High Learn Faster

An experimental program, the first of its kind in Northern California, has recently been inaugurated in the advanced stenography class at Westmoor High School.

The program has received wide acclaim in educational circles and has proved to be exceptionally worthwhile. This program involves the use of master dictaphones, and is designed to build speed in taking dictation.

Dictation at various speeds has been recorded on dictabelts which are played off each master machine to students who work from earphone head sets.

Several advantages of this program are: (1) the students have an opportunity to take dictation from several different voices; (2) they learn to use a business machine found in many offices; (3) each student can develop to her own maximum potential.

Mrs. Kay Ravenel, teacher of advanced stenography at Westmoor, is "very pleased" with the progress made by her students through the use of these machines.

'Christmas . . . . . The Democratic Way Of Life'

"If we understand the meaning of Christmas, we shall think of the democratic way of life. Those religions which picture some men as being exalted and made gods suggest an aristocratic view of life. The very essence of the Christmas message is that God is expressed in man, in men, in a babe born in a manger, in a carpenter's boy, himself later a carpenter, who never became one of the exalted ones of earth, whose life by earthly standards ended in defeat. The moral dignity of every human being is a creation of the Eternal Spirit Jesus proclaimed. If human beings are capable of making moral decisions and thus of governing themselves, then there can be a free democratic society—and only then, for if the human being is essentially an animal, then every society, every state, no matter how we caouflage the matter temporarily, will be a wolf-pack with the strongest and most brutal of the wolves as the dictator, and then politics will always be simply "the game of who gets what when." No wonder all the dictators of the Right and the Left find Christianity a stumbling-block and an offense. We who are Christians should ponder again and seek to understand the mystery that when God sought to give us the supreme revelation of his being and love, He became incarnate in Jesus, the son of a Jewish carpenter of Nazareth."

Rotary Club Urges Early Signups For 'Blood Donor Day' Jan. 20

The Daly City Rotary Club has set aside Friday, January 20, as Blood Donor Day. On this date, the Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank will set the Bloodmobile to Daly City. It will be stationed at Westlake School from 3 to 7 p.m. In order to have this service brought to Daly City, 100 pre-registered donors must be guaranteed. This undertaking cannot be accomplished without the support of the community.

Participation in the blood recruitment program has eased the task of the Blood Bank in keeping hospitals steadily supplied with this life-giving commodity. Every donation made may be credited to the donor's own personal account, his family, friends, an organization or group of workers, to be withdrawn whenever needed by any designated person. It is strongly urged that every group, business or organization form its own blood reserve by donations credited to a reserve pool for the use at any time of any of the members or their families. It is like saving money in the bank for a future need.

The Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank is one of the few existing Blood Banks that does not cancel the reserve credits at the end of the year. Its donations are added and where personal credits are concerned, life tenure is extended.

By building up reserve blood credits, residents of Daly City and Colma are better able to take care of their own family and dependents and other members of the area, not only in case sickness, but in any type of disaster which might strike the community. To those who have not participated in this project, it is urged that they begin now—it is one's own insurance against such time in later years when one may need blood transfusions. These donations can be applied to any friend or relative anywhere in the United States by virtue of the nationwide reciprocity system of the Blood Banks. In the meantime, donations are made available to those in desperate need. All blood credits are good until used.

Anyone wishing to donate blood on January 20, 1961, may do so by filling out an appointment card at Jefferson Union High School District Office in the Westlake Building, 375 South Mayfair avenue, Room 214, telephone PL 5-1162.

It is urged that all cards be signed and turned in by January 10, 1961. Any person desirous of obtaining further information concerning the Blood Bank may contact Rotarian Bob Lehman, PL 5-1143.

Daly City's Fifth Annual Xmas Festival Brings Throng Of 800

The holiday spirit prevailed at Daly City's War Memorial Community Center last Wednesday evening.

Mayor Frank Pacelli welcomed and extended best wishes and Christmas greetings to 800 residents during the fifth annual Christmas Festival presented by the Department of Recreation with the cooperation of Jefferson Elementary School District.

Pacelli was followed by Recreation Commissioner Bill O'Rourke who extended greetings and expressed appreciation to Jefferson Elementary School District officials for their cooperation.

The highlight of the festival was caroling by children of the school district. This program was organized by Mrs. Muriel Vint, co-ordinator of Music for the JESD. Participants were The Vista Mar Glee Club, Daniel Webster Glee Club, and the Westlake Glee Club, with Mrs. P. Hackett directing. The Benjamin Franklin Ensemble was directed by Mrs. E. Black, while the excellent Colma Girls Choir sang under the direction of B. Ogden.

At the conclusion of this outstanding performance, the children's efforts were rewarded with the praise of the audience and candy canes contributed by the Daly City Hi-Fi Teen Club. Teen Club members acted as ushers and distributed festival programs.

CHARTER MEMBER OF ASSOCIATION 'BACKS' KLEIN

(Following letter was sent to Westlake Improvement Association last week by Herbert J. Kraling, resident of Westlake at 114 Westlawn avenue).

Gentlemen:

As a charter member of the Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association, I wish to strongly protest the action and arbitrary attitude taken against Mr. Jack Klein. I feel I have just as much at stake here in Westlake as anyone else.

As a whole, our association has and is doing a fine job. However, one fact must remain uppermost in the minds of our elected representatives and that is that we are dealing with the individual and his rights. Perhaps we the members should have a voice in some of the actions taken by the Association before we start issuing ultimatums. Rules and laws are being changed every day in all facets of our government, and I can see no reason why we cannot be flexible in our dealings.

In this case, I am confident that the property owned by Mr. Klein will in no way detract from the general beauty of Westlake. The pattern of forcing everyone into a mold of the grim sameness is repulsive to me.

I am personally very sensitive to the constant nibbling away of our personal freedom. It may be that too much authority has been given to this group and perhaps a review of the whole situation would be in order at this time.

One fact must remain uppermost in our minds and that is that these homes are our property and until the time one lets the home deteriorate or the area around it assumes a rundown appearance, I believe the Association should not concern itself.

There are and must be limits placed upon any group, whether it be union, lodge or association, to protect the individual and his freedom.

Can we not at least temper our requests with a little common sense and not arbitrarily demand that a property-owner and taxpayer immediately change his home and property to suit the ideas and tastes of a small group of people.

Herbert Kraling

Recently our PTA unit gave a kaffee klutch to raise money for the "Elizabeth Kennedy High School Scholarship," and due to the tremendous coverage you gave it, the event was very successful.

We sincerely appreciate your efforts in our behalf.

Like your newspapers, our PTA unit works for the benefit of our community and our schools.

74 PASS STATE BAR EXAMINATION

The Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California today reported that 774 persons had passed the 1960 Fall bar examination.

The Bar Examiners will certify the successful candidates for admission to practice law at ceremonies before the Supreme Court in Los Angeles on January 11, 1961, and in San Francisco on January 18, 1961.

Two North San Mateo County residents, Justin A. Gross, 106 Glenwood avenue, Daly City, and Alice C. Porter, 209 B street, South San Francisco, were among the successful candidates.

DALY CITY motorcycle patrolman Richard deLosa points to one of several signs recently ploced on major streets to advise motorists that beginning next month spot radar checks will be made to curb speeding. The radar devices are endorsed by leading cities and traffic safety experts.

HIGHWAY PATROL & ABC

TIGHTER HOLIDAY PRECAUTIONS TO CURB 'DRINKING' DRIVERS

The combined efforts of the California Highway Patrol and State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control will be matched against the problem of drinking drivers in the coming holiday season, Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden revealed this week.

ABC Director Malcolm E. Harris and Crittenden agreed to a joint program for the fifth consecutive year. "Our cooperative efforts have achieved favorable results in the past, and we expect even greater success this year," the commissioner said.

Investigators of the ABC again "will work closely with the patrol in an aggresive campaign to enforce against the excessive drinking problem, both on and off the roadways," Harris added.

Crittenden pointed out that "even though stringent enforcement measures are desirable, the ultimate responsibility remains with the driver who, for his own safety, and the safety of others, must realize the inherent danger in operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol.

Our public information program will be directed to every corner of the state to gain increased awareness of this problem as the holidays draw near."

In 1959, 20.4 percent of all reportable traffic accidents involved drivers who had been drinking, and 30.8 percent of all fatal traffic accidents involved drivers who had been drinking.

The highest incidence of accidents involving drivers who had been drinking occurred between the hours of 10 p.m. and 3 a.m. Note: 49.4 percent of all reportable traffic accidents occurring between 3 a.m. and 4 a.m. involved drivers who had been drinking.

During 1959, members of the patrol arrested 13,884 drivers who were under the influence of alcohol. This is an average of 1157 per month, or 37 per day. This is an increase of 6.0 per cent compared to the previous year.

One hundred or 8.7 percent of the had-been-drinking fatalities during the year were recorded in December.

CHRISTMAS FACTS, 1959: Thrity-five were killed statewide during the 78-hour period between 6 p.m. December 24 and midnight December 27. Of these 19 were killed in the unincorporated areas, and 16 in incorporated cities. The patrol made 263 arrests for drunk driving violations in the period. The patrol made 8058 arrests for other moving violations in the same period.

ALL-TIME FATALITY RECORDS: Christmas—In 1951, 69 persons were killed over the 4½-day Christmas holiday period, the all-time high. The highest total recorded during a 3¼-day Christmas holiday was 64 deaths in 1950.

New Years—In 1952, 63 persons were killed during the 4¼-day New Years Holiday, the all-time high. The highest total recorded during a 3¼-day New Years holiday was 41 deaths in 1950.

'Two Vacancies' Library Board Lacks Quorum

Scheduled monthly meeting of Daly City's Library Commission last Wednesday night failed to materialize. There are only three members on the five-member board and the trio couldn't attend — what with Christmas planning, et cetera.

City Librarian Sam Chandler, hopeful the city council will soon fill the two vacancies on the commission, said he wasn't sure if the board would reschedule the December meeting.

The next regular meeting of the library commission is Wednesday evening, January 11, at 8 p.m. in the main library in Westlake at 275 Southgate avenue.

The commission vacancies resulted several weeks ago when the term of Frank DeMartini expired and commissioner H. Clifford Dignam moved from Daly City.

Chandler, who earlier had planned to hold official dedication ceremonies for the new building two months ago, said the library commission will set the date "as soon as the final shipment of furniture arrives."

Library commission meetings, open to the general public, are held the second Wednesday evening of each month at the Westlake facility. Chairman is Dr. Lionel Farber. The other commissioners are Maude Hanselman and Sarah Kelechava.

Highway Patrolmen Will Be 'Watching,' So Drive Carefully

California's highways draw the bright but unsought spotlight this weekend as the traditional Christmas holiday traffic onslaught begins.

"The light is drawn irresistably by death, and death all too often satisfies by producing a traffic fatality toll of record proportions," pointed out Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol.

"To cut down this toll, the Patrol once again will emphasize firm enforcement against the drinking driver, and against those violations which historically have proven to be the most severe accidents."

"Of course, cooperation on the part of motorists in observing rules of the road and safe driving practices is also a requisite. A responsible driving public is the primary key to a lower traffic toll."

In some localities, CHP officers will set up or cooperate in the establishment of traffic checks. These will be handled by Patrol Zone commanders, and will be conducted as deemed necessary.

The Patrol again is cooperating with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, which will work through the 15,000 on-sale establishments in the state to discourage the combination of drinking and driving.

"The estimate of 82 deaths on the highways during the Christmas and New Year's holidays can only be reduced through the sincere efforts of drivers and the agencies responsible for the safe movement of traffic," the commissioner concluded.

Daly City Residents Can Aid Capuchino Band's Capital Trip; Noonan Chairman Of Local Drive

Chairmen of the fund drive to underwrite the Capuchino High School band trip to Washington D.C. for the inauguration parade today named Thomas F. Noonan, president of the St. Francis Heights Improvement Association, as Daly City's chairman for public donations.

Noonan, a telephone company executive, and Jefferson Elementary District school trustee, said he was making arrangements with U. R. Kendree to have the Capuchino band perform at Westlake Shopping Center early next month to highlight the fund appeal.

The San Bruno high school musicians need $40,000 to pay for transportation and accomodations. Capuchino and the St. Mary's Chinese Drum & Bugle Corps of San Francisco will represent the state of California in the gala spectacle marking the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Noonan said persons wishing "to give any amount" toward the Capuchino project should call him at PL 6-0726 and address all checks to "Capuchino Band Trip, 478 El Dorado drive, Daly City."

For more information on the Capuchino fund drive, call the band drive headquarters, JU 8-6300. A spokesman there today said contributions to date total $9354. Of this total, $2500 was given by the city of San Bruno, $1200 by the city of Millbrae, and $400 from Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The band will be in Washington D. C. for the inauguration parade on January 20.

Post Office Alerts Police Department Against Mail Theft

The Daly City Police Department and local branches of the U. S. Post Office have been alerted against a possible outbreak of Christmas mail theft this month. In recent years public letter boxes, house letter boxes and parked mail trucks have been pilfered. A letter to Chief of Police Roland Petrocchi from Postal Inspector Nelson E. Poe, San Francisco Post Office, reveals that not only members of the general public but temporary postal employees too have been responsible for past thefts. Enxelopes and wrappings taken from postal box mail have been found in service station restrooms.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

WINNER of Daly City's anniversary slogan contest, Mrs. Robert Enright of Westlake, had some stiff competition. A handful of entries came from a Broadmoor family. Actually, if the judges had selected an entry from Broadmoor (it was possible since the contest didn't limit the choice to residents of Daly City), it would have been quite a novelty.

It only goes to prove that folks in the unincorporated areas identify themselves with Daly City. Too bad Broadmoor isn't part of the municipal family. Its population must be close to 5000.

* * *

SOME Chamber of Commerce men have mentioned it in the past and we think it would be a swell idea if a Christmas decorations contest were sponsored in the older sections of Daly City.

Westlake has a fine decorations contest, and so do the St. Francis Heights and Hillside Homeowners groups.

* * *

MAE HAALAND, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, last week got a clipping from her sister in the Midwest about Daly City's recent kinkajour kaper.

The Chicago Daily News plucked the yarn from the wire service, mentioning Daly City Patrolman Al Nicolini.

Police officers get their share of "friendly" ribbing. It relaxes the nerves once in a while.

HARTLEY APPLETON, Westlake Association's charter member attorney, will testify in court "any time and any place" on the merits of metrecal—science's answer to excess poundage.

Appleton, a former chairman of the elementary school board, claims metrecal works wonders. He's as lean as some of those Hollywood cowboys.

SOUTH CITY officials have targeted a staggering objective—a drive to raise $300,000 for a boys club. Business and labor executives have promised full support, so it appears something will be achieved.

But more than a quarter million dollars is a lot of pennies. More power to the powers that be if they realize that goal.

Daly City's plans for a Police Athletic League clubhouse have sort of fizzled. Initial funds are one roadblock, while maintenance of the facility would be another costly problem.

Operating a PAL program isn't as easy as it sounds. It takes consistent cash and requires the volunteer labors of many police officers who usually are weary enough after a day's shift.

WILLIAM WINTER, co-host (with Herb Caen) on Channel 7's "Baghdad By The Bay" program, inquired of John Brodie and Councilman Bob St. Clair, "What's the difference between an amateur and a professional football player?"

Their answer was a succinct "money."

THINK you've got Christmas shopping problems?

How about Mom and Dad Valencia of Daly City's East Vista avenue? The Valencias have five youngsters to accommodate.

Come to think of it, the Valencias have it easier than many others. When you shop for triplets all you have to order is three of the same items.

The cost is another matter and we won't go into that here. It would take a guy like City Treasurer Joseph Lewkowitz to add up to the totals. Joe has seven children.

SANTA CLAUS devotes most of his time to the toddlers, but we hope the old gent doesn't forget Shelby Ross, president of Daly City's Muni Employees Union.

Shelby could use two new pairs of shoes. He must wear out at least half a dozen a year in making the rounds as the city's parking meter coin collector.

If St. Nick can't deliver the shoes, how about a motor scooter? Ross gets an Olympic workout in performing his chores.

FAMOUS last words, uttered a few years ago by former Daly City parks-recreation commissioner Joe Sarto, owner of the Villa Sanitarium.

"The Giants should pick a park site where the weather is consistently good."

Meaning, of course, in San Mateo near the county fairgrounds.

This corner even urged Mayor Christopher to explore Sarto's proposal, but San Francisco "had" to be the place for Willie Mays and his playmates.

Councilman Joe Verducci, wrapping up 25 years of college football coaching as a member of the West staff for the East-West game, concluded a recent banquet appearance with a story that left his listeners silent and pensive.

Joe told about one of his varsity football players at SF State, a third stringer, who tried his best but during three years of competition seldom performed well.

On the last game of the season in the lad's senior year, Verducci decided to give the lackiustre kid a final chance. It paid off. The frail halfback had a field day—intercepting two passes and breaking away for two long touchdown runs. Verducci was stunned. On numerous occasions in previous games this same player was a fumbler and lacked confidence. But in this final game, he exploded like a professional and the coach was amazed.

Verducci called the lad over after the sensational effort and wondered "how come?"

"Well," he replied, "I figured I owed this final game to my dad who has followed all our games and hoped I would make good. I didn't until today. But that was because I dedicated this game to my father. You see, coach, my dad has been blind the past five years and he died yesterday. Today was the first time he actually had a chance to see me play."

POSTMASTER Vince Murphy is besieged as usual, with letters to Santa Claus, written laboriously by hopeful youngsters.

The best we saw (before Murphy dispatched it to Santa's headquarters) was from Debbie Luz, 835 Stoneyford drive, Colma.

"Please, Santa, Debbie wants a bicycle for Christmas. Don't forget to get Debbie's bicycle. Love, Debbie."

"P.S.—The bird ate the letter my sister sent to you."

Entertainment At Hillside PTA Christmas Meeting

A colorful Christmas program and holiday refreshments were part of Hillside PTA's December 15 meeting in the Colma Intermediate School multi-purpose room.

The meeting was opened by president Maita, with presentation of colors by Girl Scout Troop 210.

The Holiday season was evident in the gay decorations and the festively-attired Glee Club members, who, directed by Mrs. Hackett, sang eight Christmas selections.

Children representing each grade put on a play entitled "Dreamland," written, produced and directed by Mrs. Sideny Rasmussen.

Mrs. Eleanor Zenovich, principal, assisted in every phase of the program, and mothers of kindergarteners hostessed, offering cookies, punch and coffee.

City of Hope Unit Meets Next Tuesday At Westlake Bowl

The next meeting of the newly formed City of Hope Group will be held at the Westlake Bowl on Tuesday, December 27, at 8 p.m.

This group's aim is to support the City of Hope Medical Center in Duarte, California.

Membership is open to all persons who are interested in helping to raise funds to combat catastrophic diseases.

COMMITTEE chairmen for next year's Daly City 50th anniversary celebration held a breakfast meeting last week at Westlake Bowl. Chuck Vincent (standing), one of the coordinators for the festivities, explained the city facilities available for the many events scheduled next October.

CALLAN PARK AREA

Serra Highlands Association Asks Council To Consider Annexation

Members of Serra Highlands Improvement Association have voted to draft a resolution requesting the South San Francisco City Council to pursue a course of annexation for the lands on the western slopes of the South S.F. watershed.

President Joseph Powers stated: "With the development of the western slopes, South San Francisco will inherit many problems. Of prime interest to the city will be storm drainage and sewerage disposal for the area. In addition, our unified school district must provide the means of educating the children from any developments on the western slopes. In view of these circumstances we are convinced that the residents of South San Francisco can best be served by our municipal government having jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to the development of this area. We are, therefore, submitting our resolution to the City Council in hopes that they will give it adequate consideration." The request was formally presented to the City Council at its meeting on Monday.

In other action the membership voted to recognize the honor accorded to the Capuchino High School Band by sending a contribution to its travel fund.

SF State's Prof-Author To Speak Here

The Friends of the Library will hold their annual meeting on Tuesday, January 17, from 8-10 p.m. at the new Daly City library on Southgate avenue.

Continuing their policy of featuring a noted speaker at these annual meetings, Friends' guest that Tuesday evening will be Mark Harris, well-known author and creative writing teacher at San Francisco State.

As are all Friends' programs, this general meeting will be open to the public and should be of exceptional interest due to its unusual format. Harris specifically requested that he not be confined to a prepared text, but be permitted to work up his program from a series of questions, preferably submitted in advance.

Friends' president, Mrs. Thomas Brewer, suggested that anyone interested in submitting questions could send them to her at 98 Wilshire avenue. "They need not be signed," she added, "but naturally should have bearing on Harris' twin careers of teacher and author of best-selling novels."

80 From Daly City To Attend Jehovah Convention This Week

About 80 Jehovah's Witnesses from Daly City will be leaving this Friday for their semi-annual convention in San Mateo, December 23-25, Harold E. Casperson, local presiding minister, said that all meetings at the Daly City congregation, 206 Plymouth avenue, will be cancelled this weekend.

Lester M. Dugan, travelling representative of the Watchtower Society, has already arrived at the convention site from Brooklyn, New York, headquarters.

Dugan is here to direct the activities for the three-day training conference. He will keynote the assembly program Friday night with a talk on the convention theme, "Be Taught by Jehovah." Appearing daily on the program with Dugan will be Lawrence Kraushaar, circuit supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses in San Francisco and the Peninsula.

Among the local residents attending are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Oravec, 42 Wilson street; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nicholas and daughter Mary Ann, 291 Hillcrest drive; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davidson and their five children, 54 Abbot street, and Mr. and Mrs. James Turpin and daughter Marlene, 352 Lakeshire drive.

"The convention," Casperson stated, "will deepen appreciation of the Bible's practical counsel on Christian living in these troubled times. Peace among men can only come after they find peace with God."

A cordial invitation to all Daly City residents to attend the Sunday public discourse is extended by Casperson. This address, "Is God Interested in the Affairs of Men," will be given by Dugan at 3 p.m. in the Fiesta Building of the San Mateo County Fairgrounds.

New Sales Manager For Department Of National Lead Co.

Westlake resident Jack J. Smith has been appointed sales manager, industrial products, for the Pacific Coast Branch of National Lead Company, manufacturers of "Dutch Boy" paints. In announcing the appointment D. D. Roberts, general manager, stated that Smith will direct the marketing of "Dutch Boy" maintenance finishes, product finishes and other custom-manufactured products to industrial users throughout the 11 western staets plus Hawaii and Alaska.

Smith served in the company's industrial products division for 12 years prior to his appointment. He resides with his wife, Kathleen, and 4 children at 50 Cliffside drive in Westlake.

SANTA CHEERS ST. FRANCIS YOUNGSTERS

Santa Claus visited several thousand children in St. Francis Heights last Saturday. He turned a sympathetic ear to what they expected to find in their hung-up stockings come Christmas morn, and distributed candy canes.

Santa rode in a '61 convertible, a Plymouth Fury, loaned for the "Candy Cane Tour" through the courtesy of James E. Donohue, dealer in Daly City. Preceding his car was a sound truck driven by Joe Lewkowitz, Daly City service station operator. Joe's sound effects served as a sort of Pied Piper of Hamelin. He drew the throngs of kiddies to intersections; Santa did the rest.

The entire project was conducted under the auspices of the St. Francis Heights Improvement Association as a Yuletide gesture of goodwill from the Association's membership.

Christmas Bureau Still Needs Food Donations For Needy

While boxes of canned goods, donated by elementary and high school students, are beginning to accumulate at the Community Christmas Bureau, there has been a lack of gift orders for turkeys and hams to make up the full Christmas dinner.

Mrs. Arthur Wall, Bureau chairman, is suggesting to those who plan to brighten Christmas for the needy to select these orders as welcome gifts and to send them to the Community Christmas Bureau, P.O. Box 109, San Mateo, Calif. New, or clean, usable articles of bedding and household linens are needed also and may be delivered to Bureau headquarters, Naval Reserve Training Center, Baldwin and San Mateo drive, San Mateo. For further information phone the Bureau at DIamond 4-0063 or DIamond 4-0064.

CLASS REPRESENTATIVES of Westlake's Fernando Rivera School, with their principal, Mel Thayer, group themselves around a "good will" Christmas tree. Instead of exchanging presents with each other, students at Rivera decided this year to contribute gifts of packaged and canned food to needy persons in the community. Their offerings, all voluntary, are on display here. A community good-will agency delivered the gift items to certain homes last Saturday. The tree was decorated by Cub Scout Pack 248, who made their own ornaments. Left of tree, counter-clockwise from rear: Pat Zadich, grade 4, Ron Tilles, grade 6; Mariann Jorgensen, grade 5; Greg Bundors, grade 6; Bob Bedford, grade 6; Christine Larsen, Grade 4; and Mel Thayer, Principal. Right of tree, clockwise from rear: Margaret Patteson, grade 4; Bob Bjorkquist, grade 6; Malynne Gargano, grade 3; Chris Thomas, grade 4, of Cub Pack 248; Linda Siciliano, grade 5; and Robert Gagnon, grade 6.

Christmas Eve

HOPE LUTHERAN WILL FEATURE TRADITIONAL CANDLELIGHTING

The chancel of Hope Lutheran Church has been decorated with more than 25 Christmas trees for the traditional midnight service of candlelighting on Christmas eve. The men of the church, together with the Boy Scouts, travelled to the mountains to obtain the trees for the church.

A tree-trimming party was held at the church Monday evening to prepare the chancel for Christmas services.

The three choirs under the direction of Grace Marting will combine for the Christmas eve service present carols representaive of the nations of the world. The girls' choir will sing the American Indian - French Carol, "'Twas in the Moon of Wintertime," and the French carol, "Bring a Torch, Jeanette, Isabella." The junior choir sings the Negro spiritual, "Go, Tell It On the Mountain," and the medieval plainsong chant, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," and to the accompaniment of Susan Haftorson on the flute and Virginia Maches on the piano, they will join in "Chime, Happy Christmas Bells."

The senior choir offers the French "Carol of the Birds," the Danish version of "Child Jesus" with words by Hans Christian Andersen, and the English Carol based on the tune 'Greensleevs,' "What Child is This?" During the singing of the carols the youth of Hope Church will present tableaus in the chancel of the church depicting some of the well-known scenes of Christmas.

After the music the entire congregation will join in the traditional candlelight ceremony. The service concludes with the recessional. The service begins at 11 p.m. on Christmas eve and concludes at midnight.

Pastor Louis C. Marting will occupy the pulpit for the Christmas service to be held at 11 a.m. Christmas day.

Collision Suspect Jailed

Forty-seven-year-old Joseph Parks of San Francisco, arrested for felonious drunk driving in connection with an accident on Junipero Serra boulevard Sunday night, appeared in South San Francisco Municipal Court Monday but had to be returned to County Jail at Redwood City when he was unable to raise bail.

Parks' vehicle collided head-on with a car driven by Enoch Henderson of South San Francisco, on Junipero Serra boulevard near Broadmoor. Henderson's wife and two daughters, aged 4 and 16, were passengers in the car. All four members of the family were injured.

Parks, who may also be charged with reckless driving, reportedly drove across the center line and into the path of the other car.

Prudential Honors Agent For 1960 Sales And Service

Albert S. Lesch, 11 Westline drive, Westlake Terrace, has been honored by Prudential Insurance Co. for "outstanding sales and service activities during 1960," according to Lou Lavine, manager of the company's San Francisco South district agency.

Lesch has sold and serviced more than $1,000,000 of life insurance to residents of this area during the year.

"This achievement establishes Lesch as one of the leading life underwriters in the nation," Lavine said. "Only a few of the country's hundreds of thousands of agents ever attain that mark during a year's time."

A native of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Lesch attended public schools in Portland, Oregon. He retired in 1957 with rank of major after serving 22 years with the U.S. Army, and joined the local Prudential agency the same year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lesch have two children, Susan, 12, and Cynthia, 9.

A Christmas Message From The Salvation Army

When you think back across all the Christmases you have known, what do you remember most clearly? The lighted tree on Christmas Eve? The biggest package you ever received? The crowds in all the stores? The carolers outside your window?

Chances are, it's not any one of these things by itself. Isn't it, rather, the memory of that marvelously happy feeling somewhere deep inside — the feeling you never can quite describe to another, but then you don't have to because others have that same memory. It's as though, suddenly, the world is made of sunlight and laughter. It's the feeling born of true compassion, of sharing what you have with those who have not, of the overwhelming urge to see that everyone everywhere is as happy as you are.

The Salvation Army suggests that one of the most exciting Christmas gifts you can give to your youngsters or to someone else's youngsters is the opportunity to know this feeling that is Christmas. During this holiday season, be sure your child has a chance to drop his pennies, dimes or dollars into a Salvation Army Christmas kettle, and be sure he knows that when he does so, he is sharing his own happy Christmas with boys and girls who would have an empty holiday without his gift.

The Salvation Army kettles are hung low so that children can reach them easily because The Salvation Army believes that "peace on earth, good will toward men" will be a reality only when every child learns to share the good things of life with others less fortunate, when everyone knows the feeling that is Christmas . . . and when it's Christmas all year round.

The US Enterprise, christened September 24, 1960, is the world's largest ship and the first nuclear - powered aircraft carrier.

Santa Strums Guitar During 'Frolic' Here

The kiddies, putting on a stage skit, "Yuletide Frolic," pulled a turnabout on Santa Claus last Saturday evening at Daniel Webster School auditorium. Part of the skit had the kiddies in tears because a report had St. Nick "doing a nose-dive into a deep snow drift somewhere between here and the North Pole." He was reported "frozen stiff" and would probably remain in his icy grave until a searching party uncovered body, whiskers and reindeer team, maybe sometime during the summer thaw.

Of course it was a nasty rumor which Santa soon scotched by his appearance on the auditorium stage while the youngsters were doing their best to wipe away tears as another child was on the long-distance phone trying make connection with the "North Pole Humane Society" to see if they could find and extricate Santa before rigor mortis set in.

Santa quickly assured them that like Mark Twain's obit, "it was grossly exaggerated;" that the foul rumor was probably instigated by older boys hoping that if fewer youngsters hung up stockings, the older kids would get more.

It was even a happier occasion, when the score of youngsters, all members of the Hobby Playhouse of St. Francis Heights, heard Santa bragging about his guitar-playing talent. For the rest of the evening, Santa was "drafted" into the 60-minute show.

It was free performance presented by the participating youngsters for their parents, relatives, and neighbors. More than 100 adults attended. After the show the audience was invited to a smorgasbord supper, given by the Hobby Playhouse, in the school cafeteria.

It's News To Vets

Q—I went on VA's pension roll this year, under the new system effective July 1, 1960, and I understand I will receive an income questionnaire soon, which also will ask about my net worth. Will you explain this term for me, please?

A—Net worth for VA pension purposes is the market value of all the property you own except your home and personal belongings necessary for your day-to-day living, such as your automobile, clothing, household furniture, jewelry and the like—anything necessary for your day-to-day living.

* * *

Q—Does the VA have any sort of a Christmas gift certificate arrangement whereby I could give a patient friend the certificate and let him choose a gift himself, up to the value of the certificate?

A—Yes, only the certificates are coupons, sold in books. The Coupon Books are sold for as little as fifty cents, or as much as five dollars, for each Book. The patient spends the coupon at his hospital canteen, picking out whatever pleases him. Just write a letter to the Manager of the VA hospital your friend is in. Tell him what you want.

* * *

Q—I understand that by a new law a World War II veteran now has until July 25, 1962, in which to file an application for a GI loan. Just what steps toward getting a loan have to be taken by that date?

A—By that date, a lender must at least have agreed to make the loan and must have requested VA's approval. The new law places no limitation on the time needed to complete the deal, once your lender has agreed and asked for VA's approval.

'Men Of Note' Booked To Hilt During Holidays

"Men Of Note," San Francisco's distinctive male chorus, could be literally called "Men On The Move" during the winter season. Under the able leadership of their attractive director, Mrs. Mable Jacobs, this musical aggregation has an ambitious list of performances in the coming weeks.

On December 3 they participated in a program at the Sunset Recreation Center. December 15 found them at the California Club, where they entertained the Society of Western Artists. On December 19, they were featured in an open air program at Parkmerced.

Thursday, December 22, will find Men Of Note at the "Heritage," Bay and Lombard streets. Featured soloists will be Robert Manseau, baritone, and Carlos Sarabia, pianist for the Men Of Note. In January, Men Of Note will participate with the choir of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, O'Farrell and Franklin streets, in a special program. This will be unique in that Mrs. Jacobs also directs St. Mark's choir.

KIP ACTIVITIES ANNOUNCED

The USO Club in SF will be the scene of a Christmas Show for service personnel, when KIP performs there on December 18.

At 4 p.m. on December 19, KIP will present a two-hour show at the new Milton Meyer Recreation building in San Francisco. Among the KIPsters will be Rich Fenn and Arlene Johnson of Daly City, The Teen Tones of South San Francisco, and Becky Croes, skating champion, of San Bruno.

Two new discoveries: Claudia Cox, adult KIPster singer, has been tapped as a girl with a perfect recording voice by scouts who found her at a KIP show at Fisherman's Wharf in November. Martita Santiago, sensational Spanish dancer, was also discovered at the same show and is now touring Arizona, New Mexico and California. Former KIPster Eddie Quinteros of Daly City has three records out and is doing very well. Scouts will be watching KIP talent at the Union Square show on December 19.

Local Scouts Asked To Help In $10,000 Fund

Lake Merced district Boy Scouting leaders and representatives of Scout unit sponsoring organizations have been told that a "sustaining membership" fund of $10,000 is needed to keep their program at its present level in 1961.

District Committee Chairman Lloyd F. Brown at a meeting December 13 at the Westlake Bowl, said that supplemental funds must be raised to augment the San Francisco Boy Scout Council's share of United Crusade collections and will be raised in coming weeks with the full approval of the united fund's leaders.

"Our Scouting program in this large area from West Portal to and including Westlake cares for 2000 boys, one fifth of the 10,000 in the San Francisco area," Brown explained. "Since there is a need for an additional $50,000 for the entire SF Council, our duty—to raise our share of $10,000—in voluntary contributions is obvious."

District Commissioner Howard I. Stites and San Mateo Superior Judge Frank Blum, who serves as finance chairman for the district, outlined plans for the coming "membership" campaign. Both stressed the need to enlist neighborhood citizens' and organizational support solely on a free-will basis.

"In my position on the San Mateo court, I see comparatively few examples of delinquency and fewer still from the north end of the county—so I can testify to the effectiveness of our Boy Scouting program," Judge Blum commented. "But since the funds won't be forthcoming to meet the Council's entire 1961 budget, and the program need must be at least met, if not expanded, then we just have to seek this 'sustaining membership' help from everyone who wants to assist the Boy Scout program."

Joe Verducci, Daly City Councilman and faculty member at San Francisco State College, has been named an assistant director of the fund raising effort.

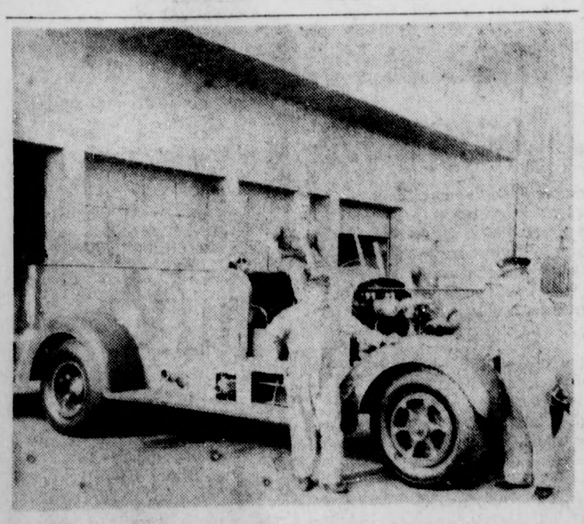
Stites, in response to inquiries about the purpose of the fund drive, outlined Council offerings and assistance to the district in the form of leader training, camp and field competitions, the Scout-O-Rama, and other programs.

220,000 Aliens' Address Reports Due Next Month

District Director Charles J. Beechie of the Immigration and Naturalization Service estimated today that over 220,000 aliens will report their address in the San Francisco District during January under the Federal Alien Address Repart Program.

The Immigration official said that 214,000 aliens reported their addresses during January 1960.

Beechie said that all noncitizens, except those in diplomatic status, foreign representatives of certain international organizations and those admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers, are required to file the address report.



MEMBERS of the Daly City Fire Department and the City Corporation Garage have been renovating this 1943 Seagrave fire truck, bought as Navy surplus recently for $350. A new truck of its type would cost the city $18,000, and crewmen estimate after new parts, cleaning and painting have been paid for, the city will be saved almost $12,000. The Seagrave has a solid brass pump producing 750 gallons per minute. SF State To Open Anthro Center In Mediterranean

The opening next summer of a San Francisco State College Center for Anthropological-Archeological Studies in the Mediterranean area was announced today by Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, college president.

Agrigento, Sicily, the place selected for study and research, presents one of the most interesting geographical spots from an historical and archeological viewpoint from which students can gain first-hand on-the-sight contact with many ancient civilizations. The summer program, consisting of a six-week course for six credit units beginning June 19 and a three-week course for three credit units beginning July 31, is the College's first overseas extension work at a fixed location, President Dumke said.

Dr. Dumke said an experimental course given in this area for the past two summers to test the feasibility of such a Center has proven successful, and as a result agreements have been made with the Italian government for opening the Center on a continuing basis at the Museum at Agrigento. Museums in Rome, Gela, Siracusa, Catania and Palermo, the University of Cagliari and many private archeological collections will be opened for the Center's use, as will their valuable libraries.

Under the directorship of Professor Giuseppe Griffo, Superintendent of Archeology and Director of the Museum in Agrigento, an extensive program of lectures, field trips and excavation will be organized. Collaborating will be professor Andreina Leanza B. Colonna and Professor Adan E. Treganza, head of the Anthropology Department of the College.

Dr. Colonna was responsible in 1959 for obtaining from Italian archeological museums the significant collection of artifacts and art objects that make up the State College's Frank deBellis Etruscan Greco-Roman Collection. The Italian government, the Ministry of Education and the Director General of Antiquities and Fine Arts of Italy have expressed considerable enthusiasm for the Center expanding this relationship and interest by San Franciscans in its art treasures, Dr. Dumke said.

Instruction for approximately 35 students in each course will include extensive travel through the Mediterranean area to such rich fields for archeological study as Rome, Cairo and the Nile Valley, Cagliari in Sardinia, Tripoli, Siracusa, Palermo and Gela. Pre-requisite to enrollment at the summer program is at least one of several prescribed Anthropological or Humanities courses at San Francisco State College or in another comparable institution of higher education.

Rich in remains of the classic historic and prehistoric past, the entire Mediterranean basin can add to the experience and learning of American students of anthropology, archeology, history and the arts, Dr. Dumke said. The philosophy of creating the Center is to bring the student into direct contact with the chapters of the past civilizations so conveniently reached by plane and boat from Agrigento. Organized excursions will provide the opportunity to unveil the flow and continuity of those important civilizations and lectures by competent scientists will focus upon the value of understanding previous civilizations in relation to mankind's achievements through the age, he said.

Registration information may be obtained by writing the Summer Sessions Office, San Francisco State College, 1600 Holloway avenue. No arrangements will be made by the College for travel to and from the Agrigento Center.

Pedestrian Xmas Shoppers Advised: Take It Easy!

Automobile companies have for years issued safety tips to drivers in an effort to reduce the nation's accident toll.

Noting that the combination of hurrying shoppers, poor visibility, and slippery streets make December the most dangerous month of the year for pedestrians, these suggestions this year are for pedestrians.

They are offered by George J. Cutler, director of service for Plymouth Division of Chrysler Corporation:

1. Don't carry so many parcels that your visibility is hampered. Make two trips, if necessary.

2. Cross only at intersections and wait for the green light. Don't try to run across when the amber light is on.

3. Try to shop during daylight hours. The most dangerous time for pedestrians is between sundown and darkness.

4. Pay attention to traffic officers. They want to protect you.

New Safeway Store To Be Located In St. Francis Heights

H. H. Baker, property manager for Safeway Stores, Incorporated, today announced that negotiations for the leasing of approximately 85,000 square feet of the commercially zoned property at the southeast corner of St. Francis boulevard and Southgate avenue in Daly City have been completed.

The property is owned by Chris and George McKeon. Additional stores are planned for the balance of the commercial property to eventually provide a "one-stop" shopping center.

Construction is scheduled to commence early in 1961 on a modern Safeway store with an area of approximately 20,000 square feet and parking for 120 cars. The unit is scheduled for opening late next year.

Christmas Lights Stolen From Westlake Lawns

A number of Westlake residents are becoming understandably annoyed by the nocturnal theft of Christmas tree light bulbs from their front yards.

Mrs. Phyliss Boccoleri, 337 Glenwood avenue, reports 25 bulbs on a string were taken Monday night last week. John Fabianovich, also of Glenwood avenue, awoke Wednesday to find wires cut and several bulbs missing. While a police officer was investigating the loss of six bulbs from the living-room window of Richard Ware, 37 Rockridge avenue, Ware's neighbor, James Hutchinson, dropped over to announced a total two-night loss of 28 bulbs.

Even Daly City's 100-foot Christmas tree has not been spared. Tuesday afternoon, City Engineer William Chapman found 10 youths engaged in a rock fight nearby. Eight bulbs were smashed in the fracas.

Merry Christmas

Christmas lights are
Brightly gleaming...
Holly wreaths on every door!
And now's the time
To send our friends
That dear old-fashioned
Wish once more...

MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

PT&T Pays Off Big Tax To DC, Other Towns In County

Daly City is one of several San Mateo County cities which received checks from the State's largest taxpayer last week.

Pacific Telephone paid $1,260,304.73 to various city and county treasuries in San Mateo County as first installment in its $2,512,572.95 ad valorem tax bill for 1960-61. Bulk of the payment was a $1,110,873.41 check presented to County Tax Collector Lorraine Dickey by B. H. That amount included taxes for Atherton, Belmont, Half Moon Bay, Hillsborough, Menlo Park, Millbrae, Pacifica, San Bruno, South San Francisco and Woodside. Some $149,431.32 went directly to Burlingame, Daly City, Redwood City, San Carlos and San Mateo.

The Company's second installment is due in April.

Guided Tour Of City Offered New Employees

A new Orientation Plan affecting applicants for civil service jobs here has been introduced by the city of Daly City.

The Plan, according to Phil Brown, assistant city manager, is the first phase in what will become an extensive Civil Service Training Program.

"The plan amounts to a one-day introduction to Daly City," explains Brown. "We take the new applicant, whether he be a janitor or prospective department head, on a tour of the town, show him important landmarks, guide him through the government buildings, introduce him to key personnel and explain the functions and interrelationships of all departments.

"We strive to arouse his curiosity, and his interest in our city. We hope he will want us as much as we need him."

The Orientation Program was initiated December 2. Four city employees, one of them Ed Tom Tomasello, new recreation supervisor, have so far taken the tour.

Brown feels that the project will make new employees happier while on the job and will eliminate the feeling some have that they are a "meaningless part of a government machine."

Garden Plants Trampled By Juveniles

Glenn O'Shaughnessy of 299 Mariposa drive, Daly City, returned from work last Wednesday evening to find the shrubbery and petunias in front of his house trampled and uprooted. Damages resulting from this daytime vandalism are estimated at $150. There were apparently no witnesses to the incident, but O'Shaughnessy believes the work was done by juveniles on his block.

George Chernok, Assistant Scoutmaster, presented merit badges earned during the past six months to Ed Adams, Donald Battaglia, Richard Davis, Skipper Smith, Marty Jaspovice, Douglas Luna and Charles Pengra. Year pins were awarded to Robert Dry, Don Battaglia, Steve Mayo, Stephen Zweig, Michael Porter; two year pins to Marty Jaspovice and Bruce Mayo; a three year pin went to Richard Davis Jr., and a six year award for Scouting service was made to Scoutmaster Davis.

Patrol leader stripes were awarded to Doug Luna, Don Battaglia, Phil Cully and Ed Adams, and assistant stripes to Ricky Georgetti, Stephen Zweig, Bruce Mayo and Jim Pasha. Assistant senior patrol leader emblems were awarded to Marty Jaspovice and Skipper Smith. Charles Pengra was named senior patrol leader for the coming year. Richard Davis received a junior assistant scoutmaster award on retiring as senior patrol leader.

The President Eisenhower Award for service to the Troop during Scouting's 50th anniversary year was made to Skipper Smith.

Charles Pengra was presented with the emblem for achieving Life Scout.

Mike Renfrow, a San Francisco fireman and former Navy man, was introduced at the close of the Court of Honor as the new Scoutmaster for 1961 of Troop 248, pioneer Boy Scout unit in Westlake. Retiring Scoutmaster Dick Davis will remain on the Lake Merced District Scouting Commissioner's staff and as a troop committeeman.

TEMPLE JUDEA

Rabbi Shapiro's Sermon Friday To Deal With Lawn Controversy

Rabbi Robert W. Shapiro's sermon will be a comment on the current Westlake lawn dispute at Sabbath Eve services this Friday, December 23, at 8:30 p.m. in the Temple House in Westlake, 95 South Mayfair avenue. All are invited to attend this service and the reception following.

All parents whose children are eligible for religious school, pre-kindergarten (age 3 years 9 months) — post confirmation (16 years of age), and not currently enrolled in a religious school, are requested to contact the office of Temple Judea, PL 5-6362, or bring their children to Westlake Elementary School, Lake Vista and Fieldcrest drive, on Sunday mornings at 10 a.m. for registration. The current enrollment of the Judea Religious School is over 300 children.

In addition to Sunday morning classes, Temple offers a weekday Hebrew School under the supervision of Rabbi Shapiro and in affiliation with the Bureau of Jewish Education of San Francisco. Parents who are interested in preparing their sons or daughter for Bar Mitzvah or Bas Mitzvah, are especially urged to register them for these classes. Membership in Temple Judea, the youngest Reform Congregation of the San Francisco Bay Area, includes religious school enrollment as well as High Holyday seats, an excellent Youth Group, and an outstanding Sisterhood, Brotherhood, and a recently added adult education program under the direction of Shapiro.

Extra-Heavy Mail Keeps P.O. Busy

"The Christmas mail flow this season is almost 15 per cent heavier than it was last year," reports Vincent Murphy, Daly City Postmaster.

What with the usual flood of Christmas cards, Santa Claus letters, and an unusually large number of parcels to process, the Post Office is providing plenty of work for its 149 temporary employees. The Christmas season works, who will be retained through December 27, are of course supplementary to the post Office's 125 regular full-time employees.

Murphy reports that a friendly printed letter has been drawn up which he sends out to children who request an answer for Santa Claus. This replaces the laborious process of answering each letter personally.

• • •

Dear Santa:

I hope you won't forget me this coming Christmas. Please would you give me a bike if you have one to spare, if not a pair of rocket shoes.

Debby

• • •

Dear Santa:

How are you in the North Pole? For Christmas I want Chatty Kathy doll, 2 pairs of pants, iron set with electric iron. And many other things. But most of all I want a little kitty.

Julie

• • •

Dear Santa:

Here is my big Christmas list. I have been a good girl and I hope you will treat me good. I love you very much.

Lorie

Ed. The list includes 16 items.)

• • •

Dear Santa:

This year please bring me a farm set, astro base, machine gun, flying fox, typewriter, potato heads, doctor kit, giant, train set, make it Lionel, with the giraffe cars.

Gary

• • •

Dear Santa:

I wish I had a Chickabator that hatches eggs because I like them. And I want a big doll and some checkers. Will you bring me some tiker toys please.

Deborah

• • •

Dear Santa:

I want some toys. I want some candy canes. I want lots and lots of army men. I want some candy and toys in my stocking. I am a good boy but I never eat my spinach.

State Adopts Freeway Route On Coastside

The California Highway Commission today adopted a freeway routing for the relocation of 6.2 miles of State Sign Route 1 in San Mateo County between the Half Moon Bay airport and the south city limit of Pacifica.

The adopted route runs east of the present highway at distances ranging from a quarter mile to about a mile and well to the east of the Devils Slide Area on the existing highway. It was recommended by State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack.

Plans of the Division of Highways call for the construction of a four-lane freeway at a cost of approximately $9,570,000, including sufficient width of right of way for an ultimate six lanes. Start of construction will depend on the availability of future highway funds, Womack said.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

Global television became an actual reality with the recent announcement of the formation of the first international organization of broadcasters, "Intertel," which includes participants from four nations, Associated Rediffusion Ltd. of Great Britain, Australian Broadcasting Commission, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, and for the United States, Westinghouse Broadcasting Company and the National Educational Television and Radio Center.

Each month "Intertel" will produce an hour-long documentary on important world topics, with the first program "France: In Transition" to be seen in the spring over all the Westinghouse stations including KPIX, as well as 50 educational station also includes our local educational outlet, KQED.

Just what does such an organization mean to you the viewer? WBC's President, Donald H. McGannon, who has been honored many times for his dedicated and enlightened leadership in television (most recent award was coveted Pulse "Man of the Year") summed up practical step, after years of ganization "this is the first practical step, after years of talking and hoping, toward the creation and use of international television for cultural exchange and an effective weapon for peace."

Vista Mar Students Demonstrate The Proper Xmas Spirit

Joyous, melodious sounds were heard in the vicinity of the multi-use room at Vista Mar School on Tuesday, December 13, when the entire school participated in their annual Christmas program for the PTA.

The kindergarten classes presented "The Toymaker's Dream," with Santa in costume, while "Rudolph, the Red-Nose Reindeer" was sung by the first grade. The second grades presented a choral verse, and then sang "Up On The Housetop." "Bells" was presented by the third grades, accompanied by sound effects. The fourth grades combined to sing "Pat-A-Pan."

Between class numbers the Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Pat Hatckett sung various Christmas and Chanukah songs. This same group, composed of fifth and sixth grade students, participated in the co-sponsored Community Christmas Festival at Daly City War Memorial Building, on Wednesday, December 13.

The outdoor Christmas trees in the court of the school radiated the spirit of Christmas to the many motorists driving down Southgate avenue in front of the school.

Indian Cagers Win And Lose At Palo Alto

Jefferson High's classy varsity cagers advanced to the finals of the Palo Alto Invitational on Tuesday night by whipping Cubberley, 65-53. The Indians lost in their first tourney game Monday, 50-47 to Washington High of San Francisco.

Jeff was scheduled to meet Poly High of SF (1-1 in the tourney) Wednesday night for the consolation title. Capuchino and Palo Alto, both with two wins, met for the tourney championship last night.

A "cold" first half by the Indians cost them the Washington game. The Eagles led 22-11, 35-23 and 40-39 at the end of the quarters. The winning bucket was scored with six seconds left. Two free throws after the gun sounded made it a three point loss for the Daly City cagers.

Jeff led all the way in decisioning Cubberley the next evening. Bobby With set the pace with 15 points. Molossi had 14, Lee 12 and Sonny Stoller 11. Center Hiram Sibley of Jeff contributed 9 points and reserve Mike Kennedy had 4.

Capuchino raced into the finals with an easy 54-28 win over Washington. Palo Alto qualified for the championship game by waxing Serra, 56-36.

The Indians last week suffered their first loss in six practice games as SF State's JV's downed Coach Mike Orlich's squad, 54-48. Jeff led at one time, 46-44, but Orlich swept his bench in order to give all his players experience.

Thursday next week the Indians play host to Poly of San Francisco. Jefferson will be favored with Capuchino in the Peninsula League tourney, January 4 to 7 at Hillsdale.

North County Judo Men Do Well In Federation's Annual Tourney

Several Peninsula judo men, including a Daly City resident, today hold awards for competition in the American Judo Federation's championship tournament.

The tourney was held December 10 at South San Francisco High School, with 69 entrants from six judo schools throughout Northern California attending.

Law's Judo School of Oakland, with 136 points, took team trophy. Cahill's Judo Academy of South San Francisco and Dino's of Berkeley, with 127 points each, tied for second.

Highlight matches of the evening saw San Bruno's Fred Cahill and South San Francisco's Willy Cahill, his nephew, finish second and third in the Black Belt—or top category—to muscular Ken Santiago of Sacramento. Santiago, a 240-pounder, was heavyweight champion of Hawaii last year.

Daly City's Mike Warren and Willy Cahill teamed up to score a near-perfect 96 out of 100 points in Kata, or ceremonial competition for prearranged skills. Judging is on perfection of form.

Peninsula winners, members of the Cahill team, include:

Junior Division (13 and below): Joe Calon, San Francisco, second; Richard Park, South San Francisco, third.

Intermediate (14 to 16 years): Pete Essner, Hillsborough, third.

White and Green Belt (beginning adults): Eddie Rodriquez, first; Leon Nogue, third, both of South San Francisco.

Black Belt (top class): Fred Cahill, San Bruno, second; Willy Cahill, South San Francisco, third.

Results of ceremonial Kata:

(White and Green Belts: Ricky Ramierez, and Leon Nogue, both of South San Francisco, first; Joe Souza and Eddie Rodriquez, also of South San Francisco, second.

Black Belt: Mike Warren, Daly City, and Willy Cahill, South San Francisco, first; Fred Cahill, San Bruno, and Willy Cahill, South San Francisco, second.

Mothers, Fathers: Your Help Is Needed In March Of Dimes Drive

The acute need of a "Mothers March" city chairman for Daly City in the 1961 "New March of Dimes" campaign in January was discloced today.

"We have had excellent coverage by our volunteers in Daly City in recent years for the annual Mothers March phase of the March of Dimes," says Mrs. J. L. Whetsel, general chairman for the north county areas in the Mothers March. "But our Daly City chairman has resigned, and we are searching for someone to replace her immediately."

Mrs. Whetsel, who resides at 3440 Crestmoor drive in San Bruno, said that "anyone desiring to volunteer for this important post now may contact me at my home by calling JU 8-7931 evenings, and I will be happy to meet with them soon."

The "Mothers March" in the 1961 campaign will require several hundred volunteers to ring doorbells at all homes and apartments in Daly City and throughout the county this year, with men as well as women volunteers participating in this door-to-door effort for this fine public health cause.

Men will wear a lapel card assuring citizens when they call during the march that "Tonight I Am A Mother," and hence seeking funds for the "Mothers March" in the 1961 "New March of Dimes" campaign.

The mothers will be trudging door-to-door for one hour the evening of Tuesday, January 31, 1961 in the climax to the drive which officially gets under way January 2 of the New Year and continues throughout the month of January.
